

TSB77201AP | Targus 13" Crave™ II Convertible 3-In-1 Backpack for MacBook®

The Targus Crave™ II Convertible 3-In-1 Backpack for MacBook® is designed to protect up to 13" MacBook® Pro and MacBook® Air. This versatile 3-in-1 convertible case can easily convert into a backpack, messenger or topload for your convenience. Inspired by outdoor apparel, it features great protection. The outer part of the case is made of durable nylon material with DuPont™ Teflon® fabric protector that repels most water and oil accidental spills. The foam padding MacBook® compartment system provides extra layers of cushioning for shock absorbency while the soft, scratch-resistant interior lining keeps the MacBook® free from dust or scratches. The lightweight material has been abrasion tested for durability. For easy conversion, the backpack shoulder straps are retractable and the stow-away handles are easy to store and ensure a neat and tidy look. The messenger shoulder strap is removable and adjustable for even more convenience. The Crave™ II Convertible 3- In-1 Backpack offers plenty of storage options, including an advanced workstation and a zippered stash pocket on front panel. For better organization, there is a dedicated iPad® compartment made of scratchresistant interior to protect your device. Special details of the back panel include mesh fabric which provides air ventilation, and comfort. The Crave™ II Convertible 3-In-1 Backpack is a versatile, lightweight and durable option for work, leisure or travel.
